CHAIRPERSON'S MESSAGE

Dear Amitians

I would like to congratulate my dear children on their exemplary performance in Class X and XII Board Examination for the academic session 2020-21. While academic excellence is our major thrust, the school is also devoted to prepare the students for life, groom them to face the challenges of tomorrow, and encourage them to be socially relevant. It always gives me immense happiness and satisfaction to visualize Amity Universe stand tall as it has successfully developed a holistic system where formal education has been intricately woven with moral, spiritual and social education. The dynamism of the young talent is being tapped, the innate potentialities of its students are being chiseled. I believe that there is no substitute for quality education and our constant efforts to keep ourselves abreast with the everchanging world will definitely serve the purpose of supporting it's students' personal and professional development. There is every reason to place a renewed emphasis on the humanistic dimensions of education, enabling each person to grasp and appreciate the individuality of others, and to discover one's own self through an inner journey whose milestones are knowledge, introspection and humility.

As rightly quote by Albert Einstein," Education is not the learning of facts but the training of the mind to think."

IT'S STILL HERE

Creativity - Junior School

Corona is still here, it's not gone
Let's all make sure it doesn't get back strong.
So, wash or sanitise your hand
To keep them neat
Maintain a distance of at least six feet
Wear your mask as it is a protective sheet
Fold your hands to someone you meet
Cause this is not the time to hug and greet
Follow these rules do not cheat

MY MULTITASKER MOM

Who gave you this much energy mom, to be multitasker? Whereas I could not study on my own.

You are a teacher, nurse & a Counsellor to me

You are everything I have ever known.

Who gave you this much energy, mom?

To be a chauffeur, Cook and a friend.

Still, you find time. To play at days end.

Now I know it was pure love, Mom.

That makes you Omnipresent on just a call.

Your never ending love make me love you more.

And from the bottom of my heart. I thank you for it all.

WE ARE INDIANS

We are Indians Independent and free,
So big and beautiful is our country!
The colourful culture we see,
The variety of food we eat!
We should keep our country clean!
Follow events like Gandagi Mukh Bharat,
And make it more green!
We salute our country with courage and pride,
As it is very beautiful and bright!!

“THE ‘GOLDEN AGE’ MONTGOLFIER”

A wish granted by the guardian of the promised land,
A wish that was beautiful and grand!
No one can ever miss the majesty of the time-travelling balloon,
It can take you as far as the moon...
You just get in and see where the wind takes you, Don't miss the rich colour of the eastern sky, in the airspace we flew..
Who doesn't like to travel in the past-time and trace the footprints of the legends?
Hop on in the balloon on an errand.
It takes you in the history and solves all the mystery Feels great to visit the 1930's to know the nations father grand deed,
The renowned Dandi March, it was the hour of need..
The Irwin and Poona pact, so much to look upon,
The very year the first man to walk on moon-Neil Armstrong was born.
As pretty as a picture, the trip was memorable,
Never a one can forget, it was unforgettable.

RACING THROUGH LIFE

Life slipping slowly through my hand,
there is so much I still don't understand.
The burden of tasks I feel buried underneath,
chasing deadlines, I don't have time to breathe.
Before I can relish, get a hold and grasp
I have to move on to the next thing often with a gasp.
A few moments of joy a few hours of break,
I'd sit on a beach, some sandcastles I'd make.
But I have to run as life is a race,
every day is a lap, I have dreams to chase.
Thinking of my dreams my face lights up with a smile
I get the strength, the confidence to go that extra mile.

White, the colour of amity
Green, the colour of greenery
They inspire me, these colours three,

White like the clouds in the breeze,
Our rich forests for green,
They inspire me, these colours three,
India's colours three.

Saffron at the top tells me that my brave ancestors watch me from above!
White in the middle tells me about the vision of accord in the Indian air!
Green at the bottoms represents the plants,
sprouting from the ground!
In this land beyond compare!

Saffron for sacrifice!
White for peace!
Green for the Earth mother!
They're India's colours three!
They inspire me, these colours three,

I am proud of India's colours three,

THREE HANDS

Creativity -Senior School

I was dancing, dancing on the edge, of this lake, murky, frightening, called 'reality'.
Spinning around, I fell to the ground,
with tears trickling down, I look at my blood red hands,
old, dirty, may be beautiful.
Staring at them, I take a glance at the lake,
I don't see just two bleeding pieces, instead I see three.
I carry this third broken hand in between my lungs,
it's made of pure glass, a little different name, they call it my 'heart'.
Just like my bleeding hands, it unwillingly holds onto little things,
and you guessed it right, it also learns to let them go.
Just like my bleeding hands crave to find its perfect fit,
My heart too craves to find its other half and share its warmth.
And once again I look at myself,
in this frightening lake called 'reality',
My three hands speaking my story,
old, bleeding yet beautiful.

A FREE BIRD

Here comes the time when we are locked up in our houses
Just like the animals in the zoo ,
Can't step out of the four walls
The sky is beautiful outside, can't step out of the four walls
Mind running like kids in open field, thinking about all the great times,
when we were free like the birds flapping it's wings in the open sky
Now caged like animals in the zoo .
There was a time when we were free
Just like the animals in the jungle
The sky was still beautiful, could step out of the four walls
I want to live like the animals in the jungle
Free from cages and these four walls
Just want be like a bird, flapping it's wings in the open sky.

YOU

If you hike the highest mountains,
And sail the farthest oceans,
If you go towards the sun,
And all over the solar system!

If you go to the jungle for adventure,
Or find the lost city of Atlantis,
If you go to the beaches to enjoy,
Or reach the Bermuda triangle!

There is one thing you will miss,
Which will always be your bliss,
You will never understand it,
But will always be a part of it!

This one thing is very precious,
And dearest to you,
You will realize it soon,
And appreciate it too!

And this beautiful state of euphoria,
Imparting serenity and,
Providing confidence whenever you need,
Is YOU!!!
