CHAIRPERSON'S MESSAGE

Subject : The Past is done and the Present leads towards a hopeful Future

Dear Amitians

I would like to congratulate my dear children on their exemplary performance in Class X and XII Board Examination for the academic session 2021-22. While academic excellence is one of our major goals, the school is also devoted to preparing the students for life, groom them to face the challenges of tomorrow, and encourage them to be socially relevant. It always gives me immense happiness and satisfaction to visualize Amity Universe and Amitians standing tall, as it has successfully developed a holistic system where formal education has been intricately woven with moral, spiritual and social education.

The dynamism of the young talent is being tapped, the innate potentialities of its students are being chiseled. I believe that there is no substitute for quality education and our constant efforts to keep ourselves abreast with the everchanging world will definitely serve the purpose of supporting the students' personal and professional development.

There is every reason to place a renewed emphasis on the humanitarian dimensions of education, enabling each person to grasp and appreciate the individuality of others, and to discover one's own self through an inner journey whose milestones are knowledge, introspection and humility. As rightly quote by Albert Einstein, " Education is not the learning of facts but the training of the mind to think."

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Practising Good Etiquette @ Amity'46!!

'Good manners have a lot to do with emotions. To make them ring true, one must feel them, not merely exhibit them' Amy Vanderbilt

As per the Oxford English Dictionary, the customary code of polite behaviour in society or among members of a particular profession or group is termed as Etiquette. Etiquette in simpler words is defined as good behaviour which distinguishes human beings from animals. Etiquette refers to behaving in a socially responsible way. Every civilised society is governed by certain norms to be adhered to and this comes with good schooling and a family's being Invested in their child's upbringing. Therefore we expect all Amityans to follow, practice and be demonstrative of the General Etiquette taught to them right from the early years of schooling.

Etiquette makes people comfortable, at ease and shows that we value and respect others. Etiquette promotes kindness, consideration, and humility. Etiquette gives the confidence to deal with different situations in life, it gives us life skills.

There are basically a few types of Etiquette expected of Amityans during school hours:

- 1.Social Etiquettes: using golden words like thank you, sorry, excuse me,wishing in the form of Namaste, Good morning etc
- 2.Lunch time Etiquettes: Eating with clean hands without messing up the place, only during the designated hour etc
3. Assembly Etiquettes: Standing in order, listening attentively and not speaking unless asked to.
- 4.Classroom Etiquettes: Respecting teachers, peer group, classroom furniture, adherence to class norms.
5. Restroom Etiquette: Using flush twice, before & after using it, washing hands etc
- 6.Corridor Etiquettes: Students to walk in line in corridors,while moving towards other venues, not to run or spoil notice boards, greeting other passers by.
- 7.Activity time Etiquettes:While going towards library, sports arena, music/art/dance room, walking in line,silence to be maintained, respecting the norms of the place, performing full action as expected in the co-curricular activity.

According to one of the Chanakya Sutras

इन्द्रियजयस्य मुलं विनयः or the root to conquer your senses, is to be disciplined; and the etiquettes are nothing but demonstrative depiction of self discipline.

Students can train themselves to be self disciplined, acquire life skills and display it all by practising proper etiquette, in school.

Happy reading!

FAMILY HOLIDAY TIME

During my summer vacation alongwith my grandparents and Bua, I went to Kanatal; a lesser known hill station of Uttarakhand; by car. It is 100 kms from Haridawar and is located on Chamba-Mussorie Road. The height of the hill station is 2590 m above sea level and it is located in Tehri Garhwal district of Uttarakhand. It is known for its scenic beauty and quiet atmosphere. Kanatal means "dry well or pond." Surkanda devi is the highest point of Kanatal. During summers it is pleasant but during winters it is extremely cold with lots of snowfall.

We stayed in a resort where my brother, my elder cousin brother and I played Badminton, Cricket and Carrom. After that by car we went for adventure activities. We did Flying Fox, Giant Wheel, Sky Walking. Though I was a bit scared but it was a thrilling experience in the beautiful mountains and valley.

On our return journey we went to the Eco park in Dhanaulti which is 15 kms from Kanatal. There we played on swings, clicked photographs and enjoyed a lot. The Eco park is developed by the forest department and has a lot of deodar trees. Just opposite the Eco park were Eco huts developed by the forest department for tourists. It was a memorable and enjoyable holiday for me where I spent time with my parents, grandparents, cousins and bua.

TIME MACHINE

We could build a time machine,
And fiddle with time.
Up and down in we go,
We've not yet let's climb!
Let's go and see dinosaurs,
In the past.
Everyone should go with me,
Let's just do it fast!
Above in future,
Who knows what's there,
We can do this,
Everyone's aware!
We could build a time machine,
And fiddle with time,
Up and down in we go,
We've not yet let's climb!

WONDERFUL MONSOON

Coldness seeping through the windows
Rain, comforting my lows
The strong smell of petrichor
Makes me feel warm to the core

It gives you a sense of sweet loneliness
As comforting as a mother's caress
The sweet melody of pitter patter
Rain makes none of your worries mater

Rain I hope you come again soon
Let me out of my blues, and see the brightness of the moon
Rain I hope you come soon
And leave me humming a sweet tune

DISHA DHIR (CLASS 8 B)

THE GIRL WHO FOUGHT

I stare at myself in the mirror
A frown set upon my face
My reflection stares back at me with trepidation
As the worries in my head start playing their game

You are fat, you are ugly they say
Your hair is a mess
You are undeserving and unworthy of love they say
Your eyes hold no colour and are almost dead

My hands start shaking as the truth bleeds into my veins
My legs give up next unable to keep with the weight
I scream, shout and fight to push the darkness away
But its icy laughter and insults still seep into my brain

But, I do not give up on the light and let the darkness engulf me
I do not give up my fight and let my soul be crushed under its massive feet
Now my eyes do not look dead and soulless but they burn
Now I look like a girl who fought back after experiencing hell...

THE SOUNDS OF RAIN

"Drip, Drip, Drip"
One drop two, two drop three.
It's not long before the patter,
Turns into continuous chatter.

The warmth of the cold rain,
The spontaneity of the predictable pain.
When the liveness gets to you,
Only the chill can understand.

The paradox of the downpour,
It's comfort and joy,
It's misery and sorrow,
Is incomparable to any other day.

Nowhere left to go,
Stuck between the rise and the set.
Personal conflicts and mixed feelings
Are the results of the sounds of the rain

AFIA MUBASHIR (CLASS 8 SYNC)

POEM- NOTHING AT ALL

I cover and smile,
I ride up my mask.
My tries are futile,
An impossible task.

I have many friends,
Acquaintances even.
I rub my hands,
I feel lonely with people.

I think about the future,
That usually helps,
I paint pretty pictures,
And stow away my mess.

I do have many friends,
And they really are delightful.
I know everything about them,
Yet nothing at all.

I open my mouth,
To say and speak,
Until I scream and shout,
Let all the darkness out.

I'm out of order,
A chaotic mess,
Of darkness and strings,
Until there's nothing left.

I want to live,
I want to laugh,
Wild and free,
But nothing happens at all.

I await the nights,
Till it swallows me whole,
So I feel nothing,
Nothing at all.

I wake up on days,
Acting me out,
I smile and laugh,
And everything's fine.

But then at night,
I read and drown,
In tales of fantasy,
I so wonder about.

I can't wholly laugh,
I can't wholly cry,
Whatever I do,
It's nothing at all.

TEMPEST OF SORROW

Sorrow like a raging tempest
Drowns me whole in darkness abound
The waves recede, the night grows cold
There's no relief, no saviour found

Bound by chains, agony follows
Sinking deeper, I'm carved up hollow
How long can I last?
How long can I bear?
I am lost to time but my heart wears

Memories flash by, so do regrets
I look up through a tear-filled daze
Defeated in life's own maze

MIHIKA MUKHERJEE (CLASS 10J)

BALLOONS

Holding the balloons in my hand I wonder
Could it take me away from this messy blunder?
I ponder, yet again and fancy the hunch of its departure
Babbling in my thoughts, I wish to float away
And my intuition says
"Go for it. It's okay."
And the self-righteous ego barges in questioning doubtfully
"But would it certainly work in a nice, healthy way?"
Would I be able to balance?
Or fall down and crumble
Would the hope I have
Be capable enough of cherishing such a life's jumble?
Assuring myself, I let them go.
Wondering if I could muster up the courage to follow them now?
And I'd meet them somewhere
When I shall catch them
And they will certainly guide me into life's new sphere.
